Nutrition Program Updates

---

Join the GWAAR Nutrition Team!

---

The Greater Wisconsin Agency on Aging Resources, Inc., is looking for a full-time limited term (with potential to be regular full-time) Older Americans Act Consultant-Nutrition Specialist. This position provides ongoing training, program assessment, and technical assistance to aging units in a 70-county and 11-tribe service area with a primary focus on, but not exclusively limited to, the Elderly Nutrition Program.

Registered dietician with three years of related experience is preferred but not required. Proven experience working as a member of a team. Knowledge of aging programs is not required but is desired. Position can be located in the community where the chosen candidate currently resides. Applicant must be willing to travel within our service area. For a more information, go to <https://gwaar.org/jobs>

Servsafe Class Updates

The ServSafe classes offered by GWAAR scheduled for June 10 and June 23 have been cancelled. The class in Eau Claire has been tentatively rescheduled for August 25. Also, a class scheduled for August 5 in Rhinelander is still on. We will keep you posted as we get closer to the August dates.

Partnerships Available

Social Isolation Resource Guide

This wonderful resource guide was created by Alyce Miller, RD and Healthy Aging Coordinator at the AAA of Dane County. Make sure you take a look at this awesome information. This guide contains amazing ideas and links to help your programs with social isolation. Find it at: <https://gwaar.org/api/cms/viewFile/id/2006074>

Making Service Changes?

Please be sure to update your GWAAR Nutrition Representative and Sara Koenig with any potential service changes with your program. We want to provide you with assistance and guidance as you make changes. If you are thinking of reopening or discussing plans to open congregate sites, please includes us in the conversation. We do send out e-mails frequently asking for an update from your program, but if something changes please let us know. We are all in this together!
