

Session Times	Leadership	Health Equity and Inclusion	Rejuvenation	Healthy Living, Healthy Communities	Pathways to Advocacy	Innovation and Futures Thinking	Assistive Technology
ADILN Pre-Conference Intensives: Day 1 Tuesday, April 23
Pre-Conference Session: 1:00–4:00 p.m.	Aging and Disability Resource Center Director and Supervisor Orientation/Refresher Course Rachel Kaehny-Frank, April Little, and Emma Klein		Creating Psychological Safety: Establishing Support for Your Colleagues Mai J. Lo Lee	Wisconsin’s Aging, Disability, and Independent Living Network: The Heart of the National Strategy to Support Family Caregivers Lynn Gall, Harriet Redman, Bryn Ceman, and Lisa Schneider	Expanding Independent Living: New Ways of Returning to Core Values Jason Glozier and Tyler Wilcox	Engage for Change: DHS Disability Councils Staff from the Office for the Promotion of Independent Living
ADILN Conference: Day 2 Wednesday, April 24
Keynote: 9:00–10:00 a.m.	Lisa Haen: Leadership Agility; Sustainable Skills for Positive Impact
Workshop Session 1 10:30–11:45 a.m.	Leadership Agility; Sustainable Skills for Positive Impact Lisa Haen	Say What? Interacting with People who have a Hearing Loss Caroline Ludka and Jennifer Anderson	Building Heathy Communities by Promoting, Supporting, and Expanding Quality Statewide Respite Care Rachel Watkins-Petersen, Leslie Thede, and Kelly Lamberty	Scams that Target Older Adults Tiffany Bernhardt Schultz	Using Collective Lived Experiences to Drive Change Rosie Bartel, Stacy Ellingen, and Dan Krohn	Improve Caregiver Competencies and Fill Needed Vacancies Kevin Coughlin	Adaptive and Inclusive Gaming Jason Beloungy, Eric Riskus, and Gerald Hay
Keynote: 1:00–2:00 p.m.	Zach Anner: If at Birth You Don’t Succeed: My Adventures with Disaster and Destiny
Workshop Session 2 2:30–3:45 p.m.	Unsung Heroes: Navigating the Caregiver Crisis and Advocating for a Compassionate Future Former Gov. Marty Schreiber	Advocacy Starts and Ends with YOU Don Posh	If a Tree Falls: Building Community Through Peer Connection and Inclusion Emily Cadman and Gerald Hay	Be Prepared, Have a Plan: Inclusive Emergency Preparedness Ben Barrett and Karen Secor	Make Connections and Inspire Action: Engaging Your Audience Through Personal Stories Janet Zander, Jim Schmidlkofer, and Stephanie Sue Stein	Partnerships for Better Outcomes in Crisis: Working with Adult Protective Services and Crisis Programs Laurie Kohler and Brianne Zaborowske	Assistive Technology for Independence— Executive Functioning Cassie Frost
ADILN Conference: Day 3 Thursday, April 25
Workshop Session 3 9:00–10:15 a.m.	From Confirmation to Contribution: Fostering Board Inclusion and Impact Helen Sampson and Panel	How is it Done? An Upstream Approach to Building Health Equity KC Cullinan, Maggie Northrop, and Lisa Sobczyk	Seriously, Go Ahead and Laugh Cori Marsh	Our Epidemic of Loneliness and Isolation: Wisconsin Coalition to End Social Isolation and Loneliness Jill Renken	Wheelchair Commandos and Legislative Lions Jean S. Logan and James W. Wahner	Top Ten Things You Should Know to Improve Your Marketing and Communication Materials Kim Cobb	WisTech Hall is Closed
Workshop Session 4 10:45 a.m.–12:00 p.m.	Zach Anner Q&A and Book Signing Zach Anner	The Impact of the Community Health Worker Model in the Aging and Disability Network Jennifer Jako, Tracy Fischer, Sky Van Rossum, and Lynette Gates	Finding a Connection: Working with Tribal Communities Kassy Heard, Joyce Binder, and Amanda Thompson	Collaborating with Your Health Department to Create Programming to Foster Social Connection Carmen Pangilinan and Kristen Hecht	Family Caregiver Voices: Making the Shift from Advocacy to Empowerment Trisha Witham and Alisa Lammers	No Wrong Door: Taking Customer Service to the Next Level Catherine Moe, Hazel Miller, and Amos Besaw
Keynote: 12:30–1:30 p.m.	Jeanne Ayers: Strengthen Civic Participation and Build Our Power for Inclusive, Healthy Communities						